

Contentment

Trapdoor Spider

Did you know that these spiders don't spin webs, but rather build traps in the ground! The opening to their homes actually look like doors and they wait there all day long without leaving.

This reminds us to try to be grounded in our lives – waiting and being happy with what we have.

